This Week's Learning

Welcome back after half term we hope you all had a wonderful week!

The Brambles children have noticed lots of spring flowers emerging in our garden and around the village, so this week we have been learning all about spring flowers.

We have created beautiful flower paintings on the art table using a vase full of daffodils and tulips, Brambles have enjoyed discovering the different parts of the flowers such as the petals, leaves and stems.

During free play the magnetic letters have been out as we begin to explore our letter sounds and recognising letters that are in our names.

We were kindly donated a large bag of mega blocks and construction vehicles this week for our outside large parts area.

Our number of the week: 5

Our key words: Daffodil, primrose, tulip, crocus, snowdrop and pansy.

Our letter sound: s

Something Special

Please do join in with the PTA world book day competition sheet that came home with your child. We have received a few back already and the book characters are fantastic!

The deadline for returning your entries is Friday 8th March.
